Here's what to do:

Send us your resume, or give us a call! We'd be happy to review the opportunities we can offer you. Once we are ready to begin a new season of training, we'll reach out to you to begin your official training schedule.

Our training program consists of both in-office and on the job training. Our training staff will work with you, no matter what level of expertise you may have, to help develop the skills, knowledge, and stage presence necessary to provide entertainment for our clients' special events.

Whether you are a novice or have some background in the entertainment field, we will provide you a great foundation in the style to which our clients have become accustomed. Our normal training program typically lasts 6 months to a year, based on the trainee's comprehension level.

Any level of experience is welcome!
